

Study Guide for AEE 303/503: The Organization and Structure of the FFA

1. What are the official colors of the FFA?
2. What are the following: FFA Creed, FFA Motto, FFA Salute?
3. What is Local Program Success?
4. Where is the headquarters for the FFA located
5. Where is the National FFA Center located?
6. Who was the first African-American student to become the National FFA President?
7. Describe the parts of the FFA emblem, including the significance of each part.
8. What are the minimum qualifications for membership in the National FFA Organization?
9. What are the five degrees of FFA membership?
10. What are ?proficiency? awards?
11. What are career development events?
12. What is the purpose of the FFA alumni?
13. What is collegiate FFA?
14. What are the duties of these officers as defined in the FFA Opening Ceremony? President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter, Sentinel, Advisor.
15. Is the FFA an integral part of instruction in agricultural education? In other words, is it intra-curricular? Explain your answer.
16. Describe the “official FFA dress” for a female FFA member.
17. What is the FFA code of ethics?
18. Where is the National FFA Convention held?
19. What is the role of the National FFA Board of Directors?
20. Give the job titles for each of the following people: Dr. Larry Case, Mr. Coleman Harris, Mr. Doug Loudenslager, Dr. Anna Melodia.