The North Carolina Horse Judging Clinic started in 1987 and is held annually in February. The two-day clinic provides Open Horse Show Judges with an opportunity to improve their judging skills. A panel of top breed recognized professional judges demonstrate judging techniques using visuals and live demonstrations. Participants judged and placed 26 classes in a simulated Open Horse Show setting. The classes represented a variety of breeds, events and riding styles. Each judge's class placings and exam scores were tabulated and ranked by division using the George A. Hormel and Co. Cut System.

The 2008 clinic featured the following nationally recognized judges:

Doyle Meadows – Western, Fayetteville, Tennessee
Bobby Richards - Non-Trotting Judge, Franklin, Tennessee
Andrea Wells - Hunt Seat Judge, Long Valley, New Jersey
Grace Greenlee – Saddle Seat Judge, Marion, North Carolina

The official cuts committee was comprised of:

Robin Lynn, Referee Judge, NCSU, Coop. Extension Service
Tori McNally, NC 4-H Horse Program
Brittany Spears, NC 4-H Horse Program
Megan Barham, NC 4-H Horse Program

Individuals listed in this publication attended the 2006, 2007 or 2008 North Carolina Open Horse Show Judges' Clinic and indicated they would be available to judge shows. The area of expertise indicates the judges' preference in judging assignments and is not necessarily representative of their clinic performance. Judges receiving an (*) asterisk in their judging preference area indicate they scored 90% or better in that respective division (a minimum of the top one-third certified in each division regardless of score). Participants were also required to take a written exam for each division. Scores for the exams were based on a 0-50 score and those scores were included, along with class scores in each of the respective divisions.

CERTIFICATION DOES NOT GUARANTEE EXPERTISE IN JUDGING AN ACTUAL SHOW. WHEN APPROPRIATE, SHOW MANAGEMENT IS ENCOURAGED TO REQUEST REFERENCES TO CLARIFY JUDGING ABILITY, SIZE AND NUMBER OF SHOWS JUDGED, PERSONAL APPEARANCE AND ATTIRE WHILE JUDGING.

The next judging certification date will be promoted in the N.C.S.U. Horse Short Course and Clinic Series Brochure. Judges who last attended the 2006 or earlier clinics, are required to attend the 2009 clinic to remain on the judges list.
